

A Few Words from the Pastor

Dear Friends,

As the past year taught us, a recession can make the market volatile, and managing investments at the time of an economic slowdown should be done smartly. One way to effectively weather economic turbulence, so I've read, is by going for dividends that pay big in the market. I'm no economist, though, so whether that's good advice or not someone with more knowledge in the field of finances would be better to consult. When it comes to matters of faith, however, that is something I know more about and the big "paying" dividends there are always something we should strive to acquire and help others gain as well. A great way to do just that is through our Catholic schools. Catholic Schools as this year's Catholic Schools Week theme states, provide Dividends for Life.

As a product of Catholic Schools, I agree with the president of the National Catholic Education Association, Karen Ristau, when she says, "Catholic schools provide good things for students and families—high expectations and daily experience of faith. In these challenging times, the . . . dividends of a Catholic school education—students prepared in faith, knowledge, morals and discipline—last a lifetime. There is no better way to invest in a child's future—or the future of our world."

Our own Father Andrew White School is a perfect example of just how a Catholic school prepares a child for life. We offer an excellent academic curriculum with advanced math classes in pre-Algebra and Algebra, Spanish language classes in our middle school, computer and science labs, technology-integrated curriculum, the STEM Program (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) featuring robotics, Starbase Atlantis, NASA SciFiles and Math in Real life.

In the field of Arts, Athletics and Extra Curricular activities, we provide a media center, music, art and PE programs, beginning and advanced band, chorus and piano lessons, boys and girls JV and varsity basketball, cheerleading, Student Council involvement, a Yearbook Club, an after-school Robotics Club and an extended day program.

Our students also excel in the area of service to our Church and community. For example, some of our 8th grade students volunteer at St. Paul's Soup Kitchen; many other participate in the St. Jude's Research Hospital Math-a-thon; still others participate in the St. Vincent de Paul Walk for the Poor, the American Diabetes Association's Benefit Walk, food and clothing drives, projects to support our troops, the Samaritan's Purse Project and a Baby Shower for the CareNet Pregnancy Center. All of our students also participate yearly in our Mission drive for the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth.

Most importantly, our students are provided with excellent opportunities to know God and grow in their Catholic Faith. They participate in daily Morning Prayer, a weekly Mass, an annual Mass for life, Lenten Stations of the Cross as well as the Living Stations. Opportunities to know God's mercy and love through the celebration the Sacrament of Reconciliation are given during Advent and Lent. There are sacramental preparation retreats, participation in a Vocation Awareness Mass, the Living Rosary, May Processions and Crowning, and, of course, religion classes are held every day and all classes are taught in an environment of faith. This year, too, we had our first school-wide retreat at Camp Maria, an event we hope to continue on a yearly basis.

The motto of our school is "Learning Today, Leading Tomorrow, Living our Faith," and each day that is what our faculty and students do, giving glory to God while providing Dividends for Life that will equip our children to be their very best. I invite you to celebrate Catholic Schools with us this week. Stop by our Open House on Thursday, come in and learn about the great education being offered right here at Father Andrew White School. Consider enrolling your child (children), by doing so you'll be making an investment that lasts for eternity.

Peace,
Fr. John

2010 ARCHBISHOP'S APPEAL

"I will give you thanks, O Lord."

(Psalm 138:1)

Many of our parishioners have received a mailing from Archbishop Wuerl asking for a pledge to the 2010 Archbishop's Appeal. The Appeal not only funds the operations of the archdiocese, it funds services that are of great help to parish ministries. This year, the theme of the Appeal is, "I will give you thanks, O Lord." Clearly, we have many reasons to give thanks to God for all He has given us. Our contributions to our parish and our archdiocese multiply the thanks that we give to our God by enabling ministries and services that touch thousands of lives. Please prayerfully consider a pledge to the 2010 Archbishop's Appeal.

Parish Life & Evangelization

300th Anniversary Committee Meeting: The next meeting of the parish's 300th Anniversary Committee is this Thursday, February 4th at 3:00 pm in the rectory.

What is an Annulment?

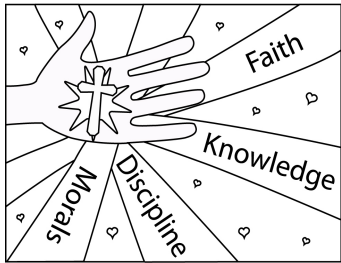

The Church teaches that the Sacrament of Marriage, by its very nature, is ordered towards the good of the spouses as well as towards the procreation and education of children. It is during the marriage ceremony when a couple exchanges their vows that the Sacrament of Marriage officially begins. The Church also presumes that all marriages of all other faiths to be valid until proven otherwise. An annulment is granted only when an essential component of the sacramental consent is found to be missing. An annulment does not mean that "in the eyes of God, it was not a marriage," nor does an annulment mean that the marriage “never existed.” The main effect of an annulment is that the former marriage no longer has legal recognition or standing in the community of the Catholic Church and, generally, that the parties are now free to marry again in the Church if they so choose. If you have any questions regarding an annulment or would like to learn more about the process, then you are invited to join Fr. Michael King, JCD, on Tuesday, February 2nd, 2010 from 7:00 pm till 8:30 pm in the library at Father Andrew White School. The snow date for this presentation will be Thursday, February 4th, 2010.

Are you an adult Catholic who has never been confirmed? Many baptized Catholics have received their First Holy Communion, but “missed” Confirmation because they were away from the Church or did not feel ready as adolescents. It's not too late. Each year, adult Catholics from throughout the Archdiocese of Washington prepare for the sacrament of Confirmation at their parishes and then gather at the Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle in D.C. on the Feast of Pentecost to be confirmed by the Archbishop. If you are an adult who is interested in preparing for the Sacrament of Confirmation in 2010, please contact Leonard Wathen, Director of Religious Education at 301-475-8064, ext 16 or at lwathen@saintalloysiuschurch.org
